Polonia won its fourth South Australian Ampol Cup with a 3-0 win over Beograd in a match which clearly demonstrated the difference between "amateurs" and semi difference between "amateurs" and semi professionals.

The match would have been a forgettable event if it had not been for the terrible defence and inept striking power of both clubs, which resulted in plenty of goalmouth spills.

The final certainly had its moments, which other games dont, but most of the action resulted from blunders.

The passing was atroclous, some players belied the ball high into the air hoping it would go to a team mate, while only wo or three players tried to be imaginative and creative.

Beograd held the upper hand for a good 20 minutes but tragically for them, they conceded a penalty when John Krilikos, the livewire winger, was upended just outside the area.

Moments later ex-Mooroolbark player Wally Bojczuk burst past two defenders but saw his piledriver tipped over the bar brilliantly.

Claudio Cadenaro had a golden opportunity to put Poionia further ahead before half time but inexplicably slammed the ball over the bar from 10 metres with the defence in disarray. Beograd pushed hard for an equaliser in the second half but their central striker Steve Tsensidis left his shooting boots in his locker.

NSW names Hellas to tackle J.U.S.T. Sunday

South Melbourne Hellas and Fitzroy Alexander both face crucial matches this week after their hard-fought 1-1 draw in front of 16,000 people at Middle Park last Sunday.

Hellas confronts Footscray J.U.S.T. at Olympic Park on Sunday, and Alexander meets West Adelaide Hellas at Middle Park on Saturday.

If Hellas wins and if Hakoah-Easts beats Marconi in Sydney, all three of these teams will have nine points at the top of the ladder. Western Suburbs may the top of the ladder. Western Suburbs may also have nine points, for they should beat Zrisbane City at home. Alexander, meanwhile, is worried more about getting away from the bottom of the ladder. It would do so with a victory over West Adelaide. However, both South Melbourne and Alexander will find it hard to win. Although they turned on an entertaining match for the large crowd last Sunday, neither of them showed particularly good form. Certainly Alexander was much tighter in defence, and goalkeeper Peter Blasby made many good saves, but there was lack of danger from the midfield and build-ups were still show. The explosiveness build-ups were still slow. The explosiveness of last season is still missing. Hellas also fell down

Arthur McMillan on the other side also improved dramatically on previous showings. He suddently had more confidence — confidence that was boosted even more when he cleared a hook shot by McGuin-ness off the line to save Alexander's hide. Up front Branko

Sydney Olympic coach Tom Anderson had good reason to be wearing a huge smile after his team defeated St. George.

The usually goal shy Olympic netted twice in this match, winning 2-0 before a crowd of 4629 at Arlington Oval.

While Anderson was pleased with the football Olympic played, especially in the second half, he was happy to see a win at home for a change.

Despite a shock early goal from Alan Ainsile's free kick after three minutes, Olympic went into its shell and had a few narrow escapes in the first half.

St. George certainly had the bet-ter of the first half, and it was desperate clearances off the line and some excellent keeping from Gary Meler that prevented Saints from scoring.

Meier pulled of a magnificent save in the 32nd minute when he dived to his left and palmed away a shot from Saints' midfielder Paul Jones.

RULE STATE

KYLE PATTERSON previews the opening round of the Victorian State League season.

The Victorian State League starts this week and, after going through a transitional period last year, an exciting season lies ahead.

The advent of the Philips League took a lot of glamor and interest out of the State League, but if this season's Ampol Cup is any guide, then the local scene is recovering Ampol Cup is any guiue, when the seven this year.

The competition will be more even this year.

The four teams that came up from the Metropolitan League at the start of last season — Frankston, Green
Gully, Altona and Essendon Croatia — are now fully established as State League clubs.

George Cross, runaway winner of the championship last season, may not be in the race this time. I think,
Croatia and Makedonia will battle it out at the top.

At the bottom, the struggle to avoid relegation will be just as tight.

At the bottom, the course is a superscript of the pottom as polonia was last season, but Altona, Ringwood and Sunshine may be the leading candidates for the drop.

HAKOAH v. MAKEDONIA

Middle Park, Sunday

After a poor showing in the Ampol Cup, Hakoah has made a tremendous improvement over the past two weeks, mainly because of the return of 1977 Rothmans Medallist David Baker.

Medalist David Baker.

Makedonia, strengthened by new coach Bill

Dumbell's imports, has emerged as one of the big boys of the State League.

It will win the midfield battle in this game but Hakoah has a strong defence that will be hard to crack.
Bill Jordanou, Mike Rainey and Baker may be able to contain Makedonia's George McMillan and Paul Hallam up front, but they will have to watch out for Eric Lesbird, Bill McClymont and Chris Gleenon, who have the knack of econing goals as midfielders.

of scoring goals as midfielders.

Hakoah lacks bite up front and in the midfield, so success in this game will depend on how well its defence plays.

OUR TIP — Preston.

CROATIA v. GEORGE CROSS

Olympic Park, Friday night, 7.30 pm.

This will be a hard fought game, as was the Ampol Cup match early this season between the two sides. Tommy Cumming is playing brilliantly at the moment and if the Georgie defence doesn't mark him closely, he will run riot.

keep an eye on Eddle Krncevic, who is the target man Croatia looks for.

Ken Reed has been below his best recently, but give him half a chance and he will score.

Paul Murphy has a hard task in the midfield against Alan Kerr and Branko Cullna, who do a lot of running, so Croatia has the edge in the middle of the park.

The recent unrest of George Cross will not help the players.

layers.

Lou Kestner, who has quit, will be sorely missed in oal as Georgie has no adequate cover for him.

Overall, Croatia has a well-balanced team and is in orm at the moment.

OUR TIP — Crotia.

ALTONA v. GREEN GULLY

Kim Reserve, Sunday. Green Gully has lost Nick Cook, but has picked up lan McCarthy from Sunshine in an exchange deal. With McCarthy, Gully has an impressive midfield line-

With McCarthy, Gully has an impressive mioned inteup.

Willie Vassallo and Les Thomson are playing well as linkmen and they will give good service to Andy Segi and David Perkin up front.

Altona, on the other hand, has problems.

Coach Joe Wilson used the Ampol Cup to slowly build up his team but Altona had injury problems and showed little improvement.

Altona is hoping that Alby Brown will return to bolster the team in that department, but until he does Alan Davidson and Keith Ackers will have to improve ifAltona is to avoid humiliation.

Peter Donaldson and John Patten will keep things

Frankston's trouble is that it lacks a top forward.

Gordon MacGregor hasn't been setting the world on fire since his transfer to Frankston from Mooroolbark, leaving the goalscoring to midfielder Jed Bannon and Keith Webster.

dRay Pocock is a threat to the Frankston defence, and George Nierobiaz has the skill to walk around defenders but Frankston's back four play it hard and move in fast on attackers who dwell on the ball. Sunshine's defence is reasonably tight, so Frankston may have to settle for a one-goal win.

OUR TIP — Frankston.

RINGWOOD v. ALBION LEYLAND

Jubilee Park, Sunday

Ringwood coach Fred Bunce would be well advised to play for a draw in this game.

Albion's striking duo Noel Mitten and Bill McCormack will be in a lethal mood, wanting to notch the club's first victory in the State League after being promoted last season...

Kit Greechan is playing really well in midfield and is doing a lot of attacking, as is the talented Mick D'Sylva. John Luyten is dependable at centre back, but Ringwood's other defenders are inconsistent.

However, Reno Lis, on loan from South Melbourne ellas, will boost the Ringwood midfield.

John O'Callaghan and Brian Thom are Ringwood's main goalscoring hopes, but George Malkousis should be able to contain them.

OUR TIP - Albion.

Green Gully's new star David Perkin.

SLAVIA v. JUVENTUS

Peter Donaldson and John Petten will keep things tight at the back for Gully and Lou Denys is probably the best goalkeeper in the league.

OUR TIP — Slavia.

SUNSHINE v. FRANKSTON

Anderson Road, Sunday

Frankston is finally putting it together and will have too many big guns for Sunshine.

Jed and Vince Bannon are shining for the Bayside club and Sandy Irvine is solid as a rock in defence.

The greatest of them all as "The Divine One".

His club, Espanol, was

In those three seasons,

He played his first international match in the 1920

From then until 1936
Zamora participated in 46

On May 15, 1923,
England lost its first game on the Continnent (3-4 to

Two films were made about the man —

From Espanol, Zamora

In 1930 Espanol was in serious financial trouble, so it sold Zamora to Real Madrid for what was then the record sum of $1300. He finally retired in 1936, after leading Real Madrid to the Spanish championship.

In 1964, the great USSR goalkeeper Lev Yashin met Zamora for the first time in Barcelona. Face to face with the legendary Spaniard, Yashin said: "Ever since I was a boy, I've had dreams of meeting you and coming to Barcelona jut to give you a hug of friendship". The two great goalkeepers embraced and the Soviet player asked Zamora whether he would permit him to kiss him on the cheek — a European custom of great respect.

If anyone can rival the reputation Zamora had in Spain, it is Alfredo Stefano Di Stefano, now 51, who became a soccer multi-millionaire, was widely known as the greatest centre forward or midfielder in the world.

Born in Buenos Alres, he was widely known as the greatest centre forward or midfielder in the world.

Foren Puskas, the Hungarian who played for Real Madrid and Spain, said recently while talking about the Dutch champion Johan Cruyff: "Cruyff isn't in the same class as Di Stefano although, compared with most of today's players, he looks good."

From 1945 to 1968 Di Stefano played for Huracan Buenos Alres (45 games, 29 goals); River Plate Buenos Alres (66/50); Milionarios de Bogotta (290 /280); Real Madrid (624 /405); Argentina (66/6); Colombia (477); Spain (31/23); European Cup games for Real Madrid (60/49); Espanol Barcelona (46/11) and AC Elche (8/5).

Another problem faced by the Spanish national team is lack of matches. In 1976, for example, the team played only three times, because clubs are so heavily committed in European competition that they are reluctant to release their players.

Kubala said after the 1-0 victory over Yugoslavia: "It is due to the character and the determination of the players that we succeeded. Don't give me any bouquets for it. Just let me work in peace and get on with my job. I knew we could do it — and I was proved right."

Yugoslavia, which had lost to Rumania at home suddenly put itself back into the running with a spectacular 6-4 victory over Rumania in Bucharest, mainly due to an exceptional performance by Susic, who scored three goals, the others coming from Muzinic, Trifunovic and Filipovic.

Writing in "Forthright", the magazine of the Lothian and Borders police, whose headquarters are in Edinburgh, Constable Jones says the Argentine police, "can throw out any contingency plans they have to distribute English phrase books amongst themselves." His message is — English will not be spoken. It is true that in their forays and skirmishes abroad the Scottish followers seem to have decided that it is up to the local barmen and wine walters to learn the meaning of requests such as "Geezanurrawan, Jimmy" — roughly translated as "the same again, please, barman."

Argentines are also likely to be asked "Hey Jimmy, wherragemme", meaning "Excuse me, where is the game being played?" And once settled in the stadium, a satisfied Soot is likely to pronounce "issiz rer" (this is first class) as he waits for his heroes to win "nae borra" (without any problems).

Scotland's manager Ally MacLeod

From JACK GILLON

Jim Tall, a restaurater from Hamilton, Lanark-shire, said "The sub is owned by a Western European country. We are still negotiating." He wants 100 brave souls to spend 12 days and 600 sterling (1000 dollars) apiece travelling to Argentina below the Atlantic.

Atlantic.

Another eccentric plan involves hitch-hiking down through Africa and working a passage on a boat to South America from there.

The Scots who do go to Argentina, will leave behind a nation where, according to Ally Macleod, "every man, woman and child will be round the television, kicking with us every inch of the way, and that will pull us through".

And if they are victorious, Ally's army may well decide to bring a bit of Argentina home with them for Auld Lang Syne.

When Scotland beat England 2-1 at Wembley in June 1977, thousands of fans invaded the pitch and dug up clods of turf to carry back north over the border.

Arrested, one of the Scots explained to an English border.

Arrested, one of the Scots explained to an English magistrate in London's Bow Street court: "The turr was from the spot where Kenny Daglish scored the winning goal. I wanted to take it home and put it in a jar on my mantlepiece and just watch it grow."

Be warned, Argentinal — (through AAP).

BONN - World Cup many is already so great that a long-playing record made by the country's national squad has won a "Golden Disc" award for sales of more than 250,000.

more than 250,000.

The album of songs, directed by German pop star Udo Juergens and entitled "Buenos Dias Argentina" (Good Day, Argentina) sold 270,000 copies in just four weeks.

The West German team which defends its world lite in Argentina in June, receives the award before its friendly international match against Brazil in Hamburg today (April 5).

The record has turned out to be a money-spinner for the West German Football Association. Its share of the proceeds, amounting so far to 700,000 marks (350,000 dollars) will be used to promote the sport in schools and youth clubs.

Who will be the new super-stars after the World Cup in Argentina?

That's the question most soccer fans are asking, especially since Franz Beckenbauer and Johan Cruyff won't be there this time.

Past World Cups have always had worldclass players to capture the public's imagination.

agination.

Who will forget legendary figures like Seeler, Albert, Moore, Puskds, Koecis, Boszik, Fritz Walter, Eusbelo, Fontaine, Kops, Charlton, Sekularac, Pele, Djalma Santos, Carlos Alberto, Yashin, Zoff, Facchettl, Mazzola, and more recently, Hoeness, Lato and Gadocha? But with the World Cup only a few months away, even the world champion, West Germany, is worried that it does not have a world star in its ranks. If a great side like Germany is worried about the absence of Kalzer Franz, how do the smaller nations feel?

absence of Keizer Franz, how do the smaller nations feet?

Germany knows all too well that a World Cup can be won only by a team which has at least a few players who are in world class.

But traditionally, good players are put into world class through their good performances on the world stage. Perhaps Klaus Fischer, the German striker, will become a second Gerd Mueller in the finals, perhaps Niylasi and Torocsik will become Hungary's new Albert and Puekas and maybe Joe Jordan will capture the Scottish imagination the way Billy Bremner did. Interest will also be focused on the Spaniards Juanito and Migueli, the Italian Graziani, the Frenchmen Platini, Rocheteau and Bathenay and goalkeepers Maier and Jongbloed who will prove or disprove the theory of Yashin, that goalkeepers reach their peak after 30.

Every world Cup produces surprises — like Italy's advance to the 1970 final, Czechoslovakia's rise in Chile in 1982, the emergence of Poland in 1974, and Germany's victory over Hungary in the 1954 final after trailing 0-2.

Therefore, it must be expected that there will also be surprises this year.

And I expect those surprises to be provided by

Ing 6-2
Therefore, it must be expected that there will also be surprises this year.
And I expect those surprises to be provided by Hungary, Scotland and Spain. I don't think France will do much, although many rate France very highly, but believe Mexico could cause problems.
The candidates for the Cup, in my opinion, are Germany, Holland, Argentina and Brazil.
Europeans have not yet managed to win the Cup in South America.
The partisan crowds weigh heavily against Europeans, and the temperament of the Latins is in sharp contrast with that of the Continentals.
In this regard, Spain must have an edge, for Argentina speaks the Spanish language and Spanlards dominated Argentina centures ago.
Perhaps Hungary may also be able to overcome the difficulties, for it is one of the most scientific nations in world football and it has solutions for almost everything.
The Scots may have less problems than the rest due to their carefree approach. They simply couldn't care less who they play against.
And of course, Germany and Holland, despite the absence of Beckenbauer and Cruyff, have the experience and the maturity to overcome most obstacles.
The Italians have a temperament similar to the Latins, but in my opinion, their soccer will be too slow in Argentine.

Kempes, Piazza, Wolff in doubt

The following is the Argentinian squad now in training for the World Cup. There is still no definite news about the availability of overseas-based players Enrique Wolff (Real Madrid), Osvaldo Piazza (St. Etienne) and Mario Kempes (Valencia).

Soccer fever has gripped Canberra, and it reminds Canberra City star Ivan Grujicic of what it was like when he played top soccer in Yugoslavia.

"It's the same sort of atmosphere as when I played for Osijek in the Yugoslav Second Division," said Ivan.

"People talk about soccer in the streets and the sport gets in the news all the time.

"Johnny Warren (Canberra coach) gets interviewed on the radio at least once a

Of the new players, Terry Byrne and Gary Parker are Ivan's choice as the best.
"I don't know how Terry didn't make it in the English First Division," said Ivan. "He's tremendously skillul. Unfortunately for him, he gets kicked a lot by defenders."

I van said that players from last season had lifted themselves, which is one reason why Canberra is doing much better now.

We have some promising juniors at Canberra," said Ivan. "Banny Moulls and Steve Hogg are great prospects and Ireckon that goalle David Lindenmayer will play for Australla one day.

"The reserve and third teams at City are full of good youngsters and Vic Fernandez does a great job looking after them."

Grujicic was luckier than the clid an apprenticeship with a professional club. He started as a junior with Osijek (which is now in the Yugoslav First Division), before going on loan to another Second Division club.

ΤΩΡΑ ΧΡΕΙΑΖΟΜΑΣΤΕ ΤΟΥΣ ΦΙΛΑΘΛΟΥΣ

Μπορεί νά μή είχαμε την εύκαιρία νά δρεθούμε ἀνάμεσα στούς 15,00 φιλάθλους τοῦ Νιούκαστλ στήν ποευιέρα τοῦ φετεινοῦ πρωταθλήματος, άλλά εἴχαμε τήν τύχη νά βρεβρίμε στήν ήλεκτρισμένη άτμόσφαιρα που δημιούργησαν οι 12,000 φίλαθλοι - Ελληνες οι περισσότεροι- στό φετινό Έλλη-νικό ντέρμπυ τῆς χρονιᾶς μεταξύ Έλλάδας Μελδούρνης καί `Αλεξάνδρου.

Βρεθήκαμε σέ μιά άτμόσφαιρα πού πρίν μερικά χρόνια ήταν μιά συνηθισμένη είκόva kále Kuolaká.

Δώδεκα χλιάδες φίλαθλοι ἔκαναν τήν συ νάντηση τῶν δύο Ἑλληνικῶν ὁμάδων νά μή διαφέρει σέ τίποτα ἀπό ενα μεγάλο Εὐρωπαϊκό παιγνίδι. Ήταν ενα πραγματικό ντέρμπυ μὲ κύριο χαρακτηριστικό του τούς πολλούς φιλάθλους. Δέν ήταν καί λίγοι αὐτοί πού εὐχήθηκαν μετά τόν ἀγώνα, νά ἔχουμε τούς ίδιους καί περισσότερους φιλάθλους σέ κάθε συνάντηση τοῦ πρωτα-

Οἱ φίλαθλοι πού γέμισαν τό Μίντλ Πάρκ ξμειναν εύχαριστημένοι από τήν öλη αγωνιστική ήμέρα. Καλός ὁ ἀγώνας, δύο γκὸλ μιά καλή ποδοσφαιρική άτμόσφαιρα μέχρι τό τέλος. Μένει όμως τώρα τό ἐρώτημα. Θά μπορέσουμε νά ξαναφέρουμε τούς φιλάθλους, σέ αὐτούς τούς ἀρθιμούς, στά γήπεδα; Μπορούμε;

Μέ καλή διοργάνωση, μέ κατάλληλους άνθρώπους στίς κατάλληλες θέσεις, μπο-ρούμε. Καί τούς χρειαζόμαστε. Χωρίς αὐτούς δὲν ὑπάρχει τό ποδόσφαιρο. 'Ο τρόπος νά τούς φέρουμε στά γήπεδα είναι öπως έχουμε ξαναπεί, τό καλό θέαμα

'Ο φίλαθλος θέλει νά μένει εὐχαριστημένος ἀπ' ὅτι βλέπει μέσα στό γήπεδο. Καί αὐτό θά γίνει μόνον ὅταν οἱ διοργανωτές δουλέψουν καλά όπως έγινε καί τήν ππερασμένη Κυριακή.

Τό «κάτι ἔξτρα» ἐνθουσιάζει πάντοτε τό κοινό. Μιά ἐπίδειξη, ὀρχήστρα, χορευτικό συγκρότημα, ένας γυναικείος άγώνας, ένος παιδικός ἀγώνας, κάτι τό «ἔξτρα» πρίν ἀπό τό κύριο ἀγώνα ἔχει ἀποδειχτεί ὅτι πάντοτε τραβάει τόν φίλαθλο νωρίς στό γήπεδο και ό ένας φέονει τόν άλλον καί ταύτόχρονα γεμίζουν τά ταμεία μαζί μὲ τίς κερκίδες. "Ενα ξερό μάτς πολλές φορές εΐναι λίγο γιά τά 3 δολλάρια πού πληρώνει.

Καλό θέαμα καί καλή διοργάνωση λοιπόν χοειάζεται γιά νά μποοούμε νά έλπίζουμε ότι θά ξαναδούμε δώδεκα χιλιάδες φιλά-θμλους στό γήπεδο χωοίς νά είναι όπωσδήποτε Έλληνικό ντέρμπυ.

Δέν πρέπει ὅμως καί οἱ φίλαθλοι νά ξε-χνοῦν ὅτι ἔχουν κι' αὐτοί τίς ὑποχρεώσεις τους Μία ἀπό αὐτές εἴναι ἡ ὑποστήριξη τοῦ άθλήματος πού άγαπάνε. Μόνον ή δική τους ύποστήριξη σὲ συνεργασία μὲ τήν προσπάθεια τῶν συλλόγων θ' ἀνεβάσει τό ποδόσφαιρο τῆς Αὐστραλίας σέ ὑψηλά ἐπίπε-

Οί σύλλογοι όπαδῶν τοῦ κάθε σωματείου ἔχουν τήν ὑποχοέωση νά προβάλλουν ὅσο περισσότερο μπορούν τήν όμάδα τους καί τό ποδόσφαιρο. Οἱ σημαῖες, τά πανώ, τά συν θήματα, οἱ τροκάνες, εἶναι κι' αὐτά ἕνα μέρος τῆς ποδοσφαιρικῆς ἀτμόσφαιρας.

Ένας καινούργιος μέσα στό γήπεδο θά ένθουσιαστεί και τήν έπόμενη Κυριακή θά φέσει καί τόν φίλο του στό γήπεδο. Αὐτούς τούς ἔκτακτους ποέπει οἱ σύλλογοι ὁπαδῶν νά τούς μετατρέψουν σὲ μόνιμους, διότι οί δυό - τρείς χιλιάδες φανατικών έτσι κι' άλλοι ῶς βρίσκοντα κάθε Κυριακή στό γήπεδο, δρέξει, χιονίσει.

Χοειάζεται φιλάθλους τό ποδόσφαιρο τῆς Αὐστραλίας γιά νά ποοχωρήσει. Καί ὅταν μιά όμάδα παίζει μπροστά σέ πολύ κόσμο ἀποδίδει ἀκόμη καλύτερα. Βλέπετε τό ἕνα έξαστόται ἀπό τό όλλο. Οἱ φίλαθλοι θέλουν καλό θέαμα καί τό καλό θέαμα προσφέρεται ὅταν αὐτοί 6οηθοῦν ἀριθμητικά τίς ὁμά-
